Seven Lakes C.C., Palm Springs,

Originally designed by mid-century master Richard Harrison, this Seven Lakes home has been exquisitely reimaged with many upgrades, including owned solar. The renovation leaves no detail overlooked, from the lighting to the floors and everything in between, creating a true sanctuary of modern luxury. The designer kitchen is a chef's dream, featuring Wolf and Sub-Zero appliances, a quartz countertop with pop-up outlets, custom soft-close cabinetry, an under-cabinet beverage fridge, and a wet bar complete with a hidden coffee garage. The living room boasts a striking wood accent wall with recessed under-shelf lighting and a Frame TV, combining warmth and sleek design. Leviton lighting and new Fleetwood sliders add to the seamless blend of form and function. The primary suite offers a custom-designed wall of closets and drawers, also featuring a Frame TV. The en suite bath is a luxurious retreat with a wall-mounted marble slab, soft-close cabinetry, and high-end finishes. Two additional bathrooms have been fully renovated with quartz countertops, custom cabinetry, and under-shelf lighting. Seven Lakes elevates desert living with a William Cody-designed clubhouse with restaurant & bar, a Ted Robinson 18-hole executive golf course, tennis and pickle ball courts, 15 pools/spas, 24-hour guard security, an on-site HOA office, and electric car charging stations. This home isn't just a residence; it's a lifestyle of timeless elegance.
