PRICE JUST REDUCED: 329 Coyote, in the desirable Royal Palms MH Community, is a large, well-designed home that needs only minimal cosmetic improvements to make it a superior dwelling. This 1978 Golden West double-wide model, sited in the back of Royal Palms far removed from any traffic noise, has laminate floors throughout most of the home. Entry through the front door, from the south-facing deck, reveals a large, bright living room which leads to the adjacent dining area. The spacious kitchen is to the left and includes an island housing the stainless-steel gas range, opposite of which is the newer stainless French door refrigerator, ample counter space and the stainless-steel dishwasher. The kitchen opens on to the den/family room that has access to the deck and a coat closet near to the door into the laundry room which accommodates the full-size newer side-by-side W / D. Beyond is the guest bathroom (3/4) which, in turn, opens into the guest bedroom with reach-in closet. The west end of the home is taken up by the primary bedroom suite with an added retreat; the ensuite primary bath has a garden tub, separate shower, and ample linen storage. The residence is sited on a premium corner lot which contributes to its privacy and charm. The adjacent carport provides tandem parking for one car, and there are two sheds on the property.
