3 Bedroom, 2.00 Bathroom, 1,050 sqft

Residential on 1 Acres

Not Applicable-1, Idyllwild,

Set against a backdrop of stunning natural beauty, this home offers breathtaking views through expansive windows that seamlessly connect the indoors to the outdoors. With its Victorian-inspired architecture, the home exudes charm and elegance, perfectly complementing its mountain setting. Perched at the top of a ridge, the expansive back deck provides endless, panoramic views, creating a serene escape that feels like an art installation in the forest. The thoughtful design includes 3 bedrooms and 2 baths, maximizing every inch of space for comfort and functionality. Above the master bedroom, a unique meditation room features 180-degree windows, offering a peaceful retreat that truly feels on top of the world. The property also includes an additional lot with a small auxiliary building, providing versatility and potential for various uses. The kitchen showcases live-edge natural wood countertops, adding warmth and character, while the dining room boasts a custom stained-glass light fixture that enhances its artistry. Throughout the home, tasteful custom stained-glass insets adorn several doors, adding a touch of craftsmanship and individuality. Upstairs, a shared bathroom is thoughtfully designed to serve the bedrooms with style and convenience. A laundry room in the basement adds functionality to this exceptional home. This home is a rare blend of elegance, functionality, and natural beauty. Discover your own personal Shangri-La of the San Jacinto mountains.

Built in 1932
