Royal Palms, Cathedral City,

352 Sand Creek in Royal Palms, the desirable 55+ community in Cathedral City, is a 1978 Skyline mobile home, 1440 sq. ft., with 2 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms. This lovely and spacious home has been handsomely updated, an oasis of good taste and quiet relaxation. The main entry is off the refurbished south-facing deck. The windows in the living and dining area are equipped with smart Plantation Shutters, while flooring throughout is an attractive vinyl laminate. Adjacent to the spacious living area is the dining area with built-in cabinetry. Beyond is the renovated, airy kitchen with butcher-block countertops, a striking stainless steel range hood and generous sink. The large den area provides ample room for entertaining, with sliding double doors opening to the southside deck. Opposite the sliders is the door into the laundry room that has ample storage and side-by-side washer/dryer. From there a doorway leads into the full guest bath with newer vanity and shower over tub; the guest bedroom, now used as an office, is adjacent. The large and bright primary suite is at the west end of the home; it has a large mirror-door closet and built-in storage. The ensuite primary bath boasts a garden tub and separate shower while the newer vanity finishes the space. On the north side of the home is the carport with room for two cars, parking in tandem. This lovely home is move-in ready and priced to sell. Monthly space rent is $852.00, approval by park management is required.
