Demuth Park, Palm Springs,

Built in 1947, this mid-century residence is centrally located in Palm Springs in the sought-after neighborhood of Demuth Park, just two blocks away from the park. This home offers a compound-style living experience, being one of the largest homes currently on the market at 2,400 sq ft on a 10,000 sq ft lot. Its open concept and ideal separation of rooms offer the modern-day flexibility to use a single 5-bedroom home or the use of the rear wing with two bedrooms and two baths, a private entrance, and outdoor patios for extended families or separate rental unit; or investor's dream to use the entire home as a short term rental home. Demuth Park is the city's largest park and is home to the Demuth Park Community Center, which features a fitness facility, dance, yoga, gymnastics, and Karate classes. The park features 12 pickleball courts, baseball diamonds, soccer fields, basketball courts, and tennis courts. Enjoy rolling hills full of green open space with walking and bike paths, picnic tables, a children's playground, and yes, a large dog park.
