1 Bedroom, 1.00 Bathroom, 690 sqft
Residential on 0 Acres

Coco Cabana, Palm Springs,

Turn-key furnished 1 bedroom, 1 bath ground-floor condo in the highly sought after CoCo Cabana community in South Palm Springs. Featured in Atomic Ranch magazine and showcased during Modernism Week, this impeccably remodeled 690 sq ft Palm Springs' pied-a-terre boasts Italian tile floors, an abundance of natural light, and a mix of vintage and modern designer furniture and art stylishly curated to set the tone for personal enjoyment or as a rental opportunity. The indoor-outdoor lifestyle is enhanced by the open living space and adjacent patio for mixing cocktails. Amenities include a large sparkling pool and spa, two lighted tennis/pickleball courts and free laundry facilities with a community lending library. CoCo Cabana is a serene mid-century modern enclave originally built as a resort hotel converted to 31 condominiums in the late 1970s. Its mid-century architecture is attributed to Charles W. Doty in 1955. The expansive low-density property boasts five lush acres of manicured grounds surrounded by palm trees and beautiful views of the San Jacinto mountains and Southridge, featuring the Bob Hope house. The remodeled condominium comes with an assigned 1 car carport. The land is Fee Simple (no land lease) and CoCo Cabana allows for short term vacation rentals with a minimum one week stay, making it appealing for full-time residents, seasonal homeowners or investors. Located in a prime South Palm Springs location close to hiking trails, shopping, dining and more, this is a rare opportunity to own a piece of architectural history with modern-day convenience.

Built in 1959
