$1,750,000

3 Bedroom, 3.00 Bathroom, 2,280 sqft
Residential on 0 Acres

Not Applicable-1, Rancho Mirage,

The stars have aligned and right now, Hollywood and mid-century modern history have created an extraordinary opportunity in Rancho Mirage's coveted Tamarisk neighborhood. It's called Green Acres, designed in the late 1950s by Robert Marx, son of Gummo Marx, this home is a rare find that was recently celebrated in the book "Mod Mirage" for its architectural significance. The window of opportunity is open. This spectacular home features dual primary suites; both with luxurious spa-like bathrooms. One additional guest room with sliders to pool and gardens beyond. The home's walls of glass seamlessly connect the interior to an exquisitely landscaped backyard with a sparkling swimming pool and breathtaking west-facing views of the mountains. The centerpiece is the original floating lava rock fireplace. Benefiting from recent upgrades, including a newer roof, updated electrical and plumbing systems, and a state-of-the-art saltwater pool with WiFi control, this home is updated for modern living. The peaceful cul-de-sac setting further enhance its appeal, no homeowner's association all present a unique opportunity to blend historical charm with contemporary amenities. Exceptional offering.
