MID CENTURY MEETS MODERN RUSTIC.
1960'S Idyllwild mid century homes are characterized by open floor plans, multiple windows and expansive decks with dramatic views. This 1963 home represents one of the finest examples of this desirable combination, with a stunning open beam design of cedar interior, panoramic views from walls of glass and wonderful privacy. A large rock fireplace with airtight wood stove insert, anchors the dramatic open beam great room. The updated kitchen, highlighted by original hand crafted cedar cabinets, has granite counters and stainless appliances. There are 2 bedrooms, 1.75 beautifully remodeled baths, wood floors, propane forced air heat and A/C, separate laundry/storeroom, and an extra downstairs office/sleeping room with Murphy bed. The large wrap-around decking, recently sanded and stained, offers additional outdoor living space with spectacular forever views. The usable property has fenced side yard, plenty of sunny exposures, ample parking and a freshly painted exterior. This is a wonderful combination of dramatic interior and exterior spaces, located in the desirable Double View Dr. area, on a quiet cul-de-sac street with little traffic.

Built in 1963
