A Landmark Home by Horst Schor on the Walnut Canyon Trail. Nestled directly on the beloved Walnut Canyon Reservoir Trail, 7051 E Scenic Circle offers a rare opportunity to own a home that embodies the vision, innovation, and natural beauty of Anaheim Hills. Designed and built by pioneering civil engineer Horst J. Schor, the visionary developer behind Anaheim Hills' master plan, this residence is unlike any other in the neighborhood. With over 1,000 additional square feet compared to neighboring homes and set on the premier lot hand-selected by Schor himself, this property is a living piece of architectural history. Surrounded by ridgelines, mature trees, and open skies, the home offers direct access to the 1.7-mile Walnut Canyon Reservoir Trail an easy, scenic path perfect for morning jogs, peaceful walks, or sunset strolls. Anaheim Hills is recognized as one of the first large-scale implementations of landform grading in the U.S., a technique Schor championed to preserve natural contours, drainage flows, and environmental harmony. This community is more than a development, it's a national case study in sustainable hillside living. 7051 E Scenic Circle is more than a home, it's a masterpiece of thoughtful design, legacy, and location.
