N/A, Beverly Hills,

The unveiling of one of the most highly anticipated and uniquely crafted offerings normally unseen in Los Angeles is finally here, after many years of meticulous planning, masterful design, and precise execution: Presenting Rosewood Residences Beverly Hills, a boutique collection of 17 singular luxury homes in an irreplaceable location amidst landmark hotels, internationally acclaimed dining, and the best shopping in the world. Designed in timeless style by critically celebrated Thomas Juul-Hansen, these exceptionally large residences offer unprecedented privacy and generosity of space; an experience enriched by the meticulous, personable service for which Rosewood is renowned. Residence 1A, known as the Rosewood Villa, spans a remarkable 4,295 square feet with an additional 1,522-square-foot private terrace, featuring a nearly 25-foot pool, outdoor kitchen/barbecue, decorative fire place, and plenty of lounge space. Guests arrive into an impressive foyer, directed by in-house concierge. Floor-to-ceiling windows welcome natural light into the interior spaces. A service elevator opens into a back-of-house service room with lock-off for culinary preparation, laundry, and deliveries. The kitchen, featuring custom millwork designed by Thomas Juul-Hansen and crafted in Milan by Molteni&C, includes two oversized waterfall islands and state-of-the-art Sub-Zero and Wolf appliances. World-class amenities include a shared rooftop with a 50-foot pool, spa, Technogym, bar, kitchen and dining for entertaining, living room, barbecue, cabanas, and spectacular vistas of surrounding treetops, high-rises, and mountains beyond. Those who live at Rosewood Residences Beverly Hills gain access to the rarefied world of Rosewood, whose collection of preeminent hotels and residences includes The Carlyle in New York, Hotel de Crillon in Paris and Las Ventanas al Paraiso in Cabo San Lucas, Mexico. Rosewood is defined by its impeccable and personal approach to service: Associates get to know each resident as an individual, to best cater to their needs and create everyday moments of magic, and Rosewood Residences Beverly Hills is no exception. A full-time concierge and staff of Rosewood-trained professionals includes a dedicated Director of Residences, tasked with curating a life well lived and a high-touch experience unlike any other. At last, a new bar is raised, and the luxury condo market in Los Angeles is forever transformed.
