Residential on 0 Acres

Thunderbird C.C., Rancho Mirage,

Designed by noted Pasadena architect Theodore Pletsch, this late 1970's home is an early example of the contemporary architectural trend celebrating the timeless design features of the mid-century with 21st Century improvements that blend the past with the present, adding a sophisticated palette of custom finishes and millwork throughout with every expected modern convenience. Located on one of the most storied streets in Rancho Mirage, 40181 Sand Dune Lane was sited to take full advantage of its rare location on the legendary Thunderbird Country Club. Sand Dune is a private street on the golf course with 10 homes including the Firestone Estate, the Gerald and Betty Ford Estate, and the Ginger Rogers Estate. A classic post and beam roofline envelopes expansive communal spaces designed for relaxation, entertaining and dining. Large windows frame sight lines that extend to the breathtaking golf course views, lake, mountain ranges and a seamless indoor-outdoor connection to the large exterior terrace, pool and spa. A large atrium continues the entertainment area off the main living area. The recently updated custom kitchen combines professional grade appliances, with abundant custom cabinetry, a morning room flooded with light and exceptional views with adjacent den/home office with equal views. The floor plan offers 3 bedrooms, with two guest ensuite bedrooms which are positioned to connect with an open terraced atrium. The spacious primary suite is a sanctuary of
