Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Los Angeles,

Continually chosen by various celebrity owners, this chic courtyard Spanish is an original and coveted Charles Toberman (1928) discreetly positioned on La Presa Drive in the tony enclave known as Outpost Estates. While the major views are the initial draw, the impeccably designed and thoughtfully redesigned home offers 3 bedrooms & 3.5 bathrooms w/ private courtyards and epic vistas of all the Los Angeles landmarks; Griffith Observatory, Capital Records building, & DTLA. The Primary suite framed by a collection of French windows has been created from a former 2 bed/2bath configuration - establishing a lavish environment & walk-in dressing room, rarely experienced in true 1920's Andalusian architecture. Eat-in kitchen, Sub Zero and La Cornue appliances, stunning oversized white apron sink, designer concrete tiles and a custom French range. The Living Room is lined with French doors which open to a secluded courtyard and romantic vine-covered dining pavilion. Third bedroom suite functions as separate guest space or has also been used in combination as a recording studio. Original large two car garage. Private and gated without view from public, embodying the elegance and exclusivity for which Outpost Estates is famously renowned.

Built in 1928
