N/A, Los Angeles,

Designed by the legendary Donald C. Hensman of Buff & Hensman in 1958, this iconic post-and-beam masterpiece is a true architectural treasure. Nestled in the serene hills of Laurel Canyon, the home seamlessly blends mid-century design with modern elegance. Expansive walls of glass invite natural light and provide a harmonious indoor-outdoor connection, perfect for embracing Southern California living. The meticulously remodeled kitchen, with Thermador appliances, and baths pair contemporary functionality with timeless style. Outside, the property features a tranquil garden, pond, and generous outdoor spaces ideal for relaxation or entertaining. Located within the sought-after Wonderland School district, this home is a rare fusion of historic charm, exceptional design, and an unbeatable location.

Built in 1958
