San Diego, San Diego,

Big price reduction! Experience stunning 270-degree panoramic views from this exceptional home, showcasing vistas of downtown, Point Loma, the Coronado Bridge, Mexico, and the eastern mountains. Enjoy these breathtaking sights from the expansive great room (street level) and the master bedroom (upper level)! With walls of windows and decks on both levels, this home offers endless entertainment opportunities, whether you're watching sunrises, sunsets, ships in the harbor, or the lights of Mexico. Designed for both comfort and entertaining, this spectacular home features marble floors throughout and an outdoor kitchen on the upper level that inspires culinary creativity. The location, just minutes from downtown and directly across from a neighborhood park, makes this architecturally-designed masterpiece a true gem. Built in 2005, the four levels of this home include a top level with a master bedroom suite and an additional indoor-outdoor room, a street level with a great room, kitchen, pantry, half-bath, and office, a first lower level with a bedroom, bathroom, and laundry room, and the lowest level with a large bedroom suite that has a separate entrance, kitchenette, and full privacy. The property offers off-street parking for two vehicles, and an elevator conveniently transports you from the parking area to the street level. The lowest level features a private pool, jacuzzi, and sauna, adding to the luxurious experience.

Built in 2005
