$599,000

2 Bedroom, 2.00 Bathroom, 1,108 sqft
Residential on 0 Acres

Southwest Escondido, Escondido,

This property presents a unique investment potential in the southern part of Escondido. This opportunity becomes even more compelling when combined with the adjacent lot, which is also available for sale. When both properties are acquired together, there is the potential to develop up to 15 units in accordance with the city's zoning regulations in Escondido. Moreover, by focusing on affordable housing, there may be opportunities to secure additional bonus density units for the project. Alternatively, this property can be developed as a mixed-use space, featuring commercial storefronts at the front of the building and residential units on the upper floors. The possibilities are vast for this versatile investment opportunity. The adjacent lot will be added to the mls shortly as well.

Built in 1940
