San Diego, San Diego,

Calling all investors contractors, flippers, and renovation enthusiasts (but not wholesalers) - excellent single-family residence in Redwood Village on a cul-de-sac. Mature trees, expansive lot (well suited for an accessory dwelling unit), central location to all convenience. Home is in disrepair and shows signs of substantial deferred maintenance throughout. The property has been cleared out and is a blank canvas for your creative remodeling input. Excellent opportunity to transform this home into its highest potential.

Redwood Village is renowned for its neighborhood vibe and accessibility to all convenience & amenities, including local eateries, shopping centers, schools and nearby parks, making it a desirable location for families and professionals alike. This property, while in need of some TLC, stands as a promising project for those willing to unlock its full potential. Its layout and structure provide a solid foundation for modernization or expansion (subject to local zoning and regulations), which could significantly increase its market value. With creative vision and renovation, this house can be transformed into a dream home given its sought-after location. Rare to find project property brimming with potential, set in a community known for its warmth and welcoming spirit. Whether you're looking to create your perfect home or invest in a property with significant upside, 3416 Egan offers a unique opportunity to realize your real estate ambitions.
