Point Loma, San Diego,

Stunning two story home with Spanish style architecture located in one of San Diego's most sought after neighborhoods. Rare panoramic views of downtown, Coronado, and the bay all the way to the ocean from many rooms and multiple decks & balconies.

Beautiful architectural character throughout; arched front picture windows, oak hardwood floors, Spanish tile, beam ceilings, and hand crafted interior doors. Spacious kitchen includes a large balcony. Formal living room and a large dining room. Sit on the front porch to enjoy the view and greet your neighbor or select the privacy of the deck off the kitchen or the balcony from the upstairs bedroom. This home has lovingly been in the same family for over 60 years. While it is packed with so much charm, it is also ready for your upgrades and custom touches. There is a large walk-in unfinished area under the house which may have great potential for additional future use. This home has incredible views of San Diego's many fireworks shows! Start living the California Dream! Just minutes to the San Diego Bay, Ocean Beach, Pacific Beach, La Jolla, Coronado, and many more!

Built in 1929
