San Diego, San Diego,

Modern and refined, this 2016-built home pairs clean lines with thoughtful design for a timeless, architectural feel. The smooth concrete board exterior creates a subtle yet striking presence, while a custom Pinkyâ€™s Flemish Glass Dutch Door adds character and charm at the entry, blending craftsmanship with modern function. Inside, the airy, open layout is filled with natural light and anchored by wide-plank hardwood floors, crisp quartz countertops, and expansive windows that frame the space with ease. The main living area connects effortlessly to one of two redwood decks, an inviting space for gathering around the fire pit. The second deck offers a more intimate escape, complete with a private hot tub for quiet evenings. Upstairs, the primary suite feels calm and elevated, with its own balcony capturing views of the bay, ocean, and mountains. A walk-in California Closet and spa-inspired en-suite bathroom complete the space. A second bedroom upstairs with its own private bath offers comfort and flexibility. Additional highlights include a detached two-car garage with Tesla charger and a location that puts you minutes from downtown, South Park, North Park, Golden Hill, Balboa Park, and the coast. Stylish, understated, and exceptionally livable, this is contemporary San Diego living with a quiet confidence.
