Point Loma, San Diego,

Prominently positioned on 155 feet of prime bay frontage in the renowned La Playa neighborhood of Point Loma, this landmark Spanish-Mediterranean residence, designed by master architect Richard Requa in 1930, affords an unparalleled coastal living experience. Set on a walled and gated corner parcel at the end of a cul-de-sac, the property ensures privacy while showcasing extraordinary panoramas of the harbor, marina, and downtown skyline. With direct access to the water and sandy beach at low tide, it offers the ultimate bayfront lifestyle. The renovated and beautifully maintained interior includes 3 en suite bedrooms, 3.5 baths, and a versatile family room/den, which could easily serve as a 4th bedroom. The formal living and dining rooms, with open beam ceilings, exude timeless elegance and charm. A gourmet kitchen caters to the culinary enthusiast, while the generous primary suite, complete with dual balconies, an expansive walk-in closet, and a luxurious bath, provides a serene retreat with breathtaking views. Additional highlights include a 3-car garage, an elevator servicing all levels, and a meticulously landscaped yard, perfect for al fresco dining and enjoying the tranquil, ever-changing scenery before you. Follow the path from your double-gated stairs to Kellogg's Beach or to the Southwestern and San Diego Yacht Clubs. This one-of-a-kind offering presents a rare opportunity to own a distinguished home in one of San Diego's most desirable locations.

Built in 1930
