Point Loma, San Diego,

Timeless 1928 English Tudor in the heart of Point Loma, where character and charm meet an unbeatable location. Set on a generous 8,200 sq ft lot, this 3 bed, 3 bath home welcomes you with storybook curb appeal and a traditional floorplan filled with warmth and personality. The living room boasts of barreled ceilings, fireplace, and large picture window that floods the space with natural light. A cozy breakfast banquette creates the perfect nook for casual mornings, while the formal dining and family rooms offer inviting spaces to gather. Original hardwood floors and period details are thoughtfully preserved, adding to the home's enduring appeal. Upstairs, the spacious primary suite includes a versatile flex space ideal as a fourth bedroom, office, nursery, or custom walk-in closet. Outside, the expansive rear yard is a private retreat with a brick patio, lush lawn, and mature trees that provide both beauty and shade—perfect for entertaining or simply enjoying quiet afternoons. A rare opportunity to own a piece of Point Loma's history in one of San Diego's most desirable neighborhoods.
