Compared with nearby homes on roughly 6,000 square foot lots, this one gives you more space for entertaining, pets, gardening, or a future ADU or pool. Freshen it to taste or enjoy as is. Buyer to verify all, including room addition details and ADU feasibility. Buyer to verify all. Solor is owned outright and conveys Welcome to 1693 Poesia Court, a rare outdoor living opportunity in 92154. The property delivers big, usable space on both sides of the home, starting with a fully fenced front yard that extends your day to day living area and continuing to a deep, private backyard that invites play, gardening, and gatherings. The lot is about 7,700 square feet, noticeably larger than the area norm near 6,000 square feet, which gives you room to breathe today and options for tomorrow. Inside, the floor plan centers on a large family room addition that opens to the backyard. It functions as a true second living area for movie nights, a playroom, or a work from home studio. The main layout offers four comfortable bedrooms and three baths, plus a two car garage and a fireplace for cozy evenings. Built in 1985, the home pairs solid fundamentals with the freedom to personalize finishes to your taste. Whether you are upsizing, right sizing, or buying your first home, the proportions feel practical and welcoming. The location adds everyday ease and weekend fun. Poesia Court is a quiet, low traffic street close to Imperial Beach and the expansive Tijuana River Valley Regional Park with miles of trails and open space. Surf in the morning, hike in the afternoon, and wind down in your own backyard without spending your whole day in the car. Shops, schools, and dining are nearby, and major routes put the rest of San Diego within easy reach. Future flexibility is a central benefit of this lot. With more land than many nearby homes, you can plan a pool, a larger patio, or a detached workspace, and City guidelines for single family parcels outline potential opportunities for an ADU or JADU, subject to site conditions and approvals. Buyers should verify all details that matter, including the room addition, square footage, and ADU feasibility. What is certain is the everyday value of space, privacy, and a layout that connects life inside and out. If you have been waiting for a home that feels like a private yard retreat while staying close to the coast, this is the one to see. Bring your ideas, enjoy it as it is, and let the extra square footage work for you from day one.
