Rancho La Jolla was tastefully remodeled over the years for the growing, 4th generation La Jolla family to take full advantage of San Diego's ideal indoor-outdoor climate and includes expansive windows and doors opening to the sun-drenched patios. Grand entertaining spaces include a formal living room, dining room, entry bar, music room, library, and executive office that complement the oversized Great Room family-kitchen-dining area, accented by Italian tile flooring. With six bedrooms and 4.5 bathrooms, the home the home lives like a single-story, and provides ideal spaces to entertain and retreat. Four gas and wood-burning fireplaces create a cozy and inviting ambiance. The gated, 3-car garage and motor court can be accessed from both La Jolla Rancho Road or Buckingham Road, providing an array of uses and development options for the new owners.

Built in 1975
