Downtown, San Diego,

Panoramic ballpark views highlight this distinguished Parkloft residence, with a rare and highly sought-after floor plan. Soaring 10-foot ceilings with exposed ductwork, Pella windows, white brick and concrete wall accents capture the essence of industrial yet elegant loft living. This fully remodeled residence features a brand new chefâ€™s kitchen, showcasing bespoke cabinetry, waterfall-edge quartz countertops, slate subway tile backsplash and Thermador appliances with a 5 burner gas cooktop. Both bathrooms were completely reimagined featuring new cabinetry, quartz countertops, Toto toilets and a large soaking tub with glass shower in the primary bath. New engineered hardwood floors extend throughout the loft, enhancing its modern sophistication while dramatic custom lighting installations create ambiance and architectural intrigue. The expansive Pella windows feature custom motorized shades and open up to the cityâ€™s most iconic panoramic Petco Park views. The large private terrace is equipped with gas hookups, perfect for alfresco dining and entertaining. A large storage unit and two (2) oversized side by side parking spaces are deeded to this unit, and both located a few steps from the elevators. Parkloft features a state of the art underground parking garage with tall ceilings and robust ventilation systems. Parkloft residents enjoy a well appointed fitness center; 24-hour concierge and security services; on-site management ensuring exceptional care and convenience; and a serene landscaped courtyard with ambient fire features, BBQâ€™s and a club house with a kitchenette which opens up to a large outdoor dining table and sets the stage for effortless outdoor entertaining. The Ballpark District spans 22 blocks surrounding Petco Park, where the Padres-affiliated Ballpark District Community Partnership provides daily clean-up services to maintain the area.
