Get your imagination in gear with this beauty! Built in 1891, this farmhouse style home was built as a stagecoach stop back in the day. This home features three bedrooms and three bathrooms along with two large closet areas that could be used as an office or an extra storage room. Enjoy your days off on the front covered porch with a beverage of choice. Vehicle access from front to rear for convenient storing of an RV or additional vehicles. The large backyard features a shed and a chicken cage for those who love fresh eggs. Collect fruit from the lemon, grapefruit and orange trees on the side yard. This home is full of antique character and priced to sell.
