Residential on 0 Acres

San Diego, San Diego,

Discover timeless charm in this top-floor, end-unit condo tucked away in a 1939 Art Deco building that was converted to condominiums in 2006. This 1-bedroom, 1-bath residence offers 548 square feet of stylish living space infused with vintage character and modern updates. Original hardwood floors have been beautifully refinished, complementing freshly painted interiors, newly painted kitchen cabinets and updated hardware, and brand-new window blinds. Unique Art Deco details abound—from original doors and hardware to classic light fixtures and a decorative wall niche that nods to the building's architectural heritage. The spacious layout feels bright and inviting, with generous storage throughout. As an end unit, it shares only one wall and enjoys wraparound exclusive-use outdoor space—perfect for relaxing or entertaining. Additional highlights include a private one-car garage accessed via the alley and free community laundry conveniently located just steps from the unit. Ideally situated within walking distance to Balboa Park, local shops, and restaurants, this condo blends historic allure with urban convenience in one exceptional home.

Built in 1939
