San Diego, San Diego,

South Mission Hills Spanish Beauty!

Single-level architectural gem featuring a dramatic entry, welcoming front porch, gracious living room, formal dining room, den/library, breakfast nook, and laundry room with a new Miele washer and dryer. Abundant natural light fills the home, especially in the breakfast nook and sunroom, which glow beautifully in the morning. Ten-foot barrel ceilings and rich gumwood trim add warmth, craftsmanship, and historic character, complemented by hardwood floors and a Batchelder tile fireplace. Thoughtful 2011 remodeling respected the home's heritage while adding tasteful modern updates for comfortable everyday living. Optional 3rd bedroom works great as a home office, library or crafts room. Enjoy seamless indoor-outdoor flow with French doors opening to a spacious private backyard surrounded by mature trees and tall hedges, perfect for lounging, dining, or play. The detached, finished garage offers excellent flex space.

Evening curb appeal shines with architectural lighting that highlights the home's Spanish Revival charm. Ideally situated on a wide, quiet street with minimal traffic and easy parking. Walk to neighborhood favorites like La Puerta, Starlite, Fort Oak, Communion, Heartwork Coffee, and Lazy Acres. Enjoy a strong sense of community with local parades, concerts, and festive celebrations. Centrally located with quick access to Mission Hills, Hillcrest, Old Town, downtown, the airport, and Balboa Park.
