N/A, Los Angeles,

Rarely does an offering of such pedigree and potential grace the market. Tucked behind private dual-entry gates, 1210 N Doheny Drive combines timeless 1930s architecture with the potential to be reimagined for today's modern living. The property welcomes you with a circular driveway and an expansive front lawn, framed by mature landscaping that evokes a cinematic sense of arrival. Inside, the home showcases an elegant foyer that flows seamlessly into the formal living room, where a mantled fireplace, rich beamed ceilings, and expansive windows create a space filled with warmth and natural light. Herringbone hardwood floors and wrought-iron stair railings reflect the meticulous craftsmanship of an era where every detail was carefully considered. Ascending the sculptural staircase, you'll find three generously sized bedrooms, illuminated by natural light pouring through a private balcony that spans the length of the second floor. The lower level offers even more versatility, with a dedicated office and gym area providing functional spaces for work and wellness. The backyard reveals the property's true potential, with a serene pool and spa taking center stage amidst mature greenery that guarantees complete privacy. The expansive outdoor space is ideal for hosting grand gatherings or enjoying quiet moments of relaxation under the sun. Just moments from the vibrant energy of the Sunset Strip yet set away in complete privacy, 1210 N Doheny Drive offers a rare opportunity to reimagine and craft a truly personalized masterpiece.
