A West Side Home with Spanish Character AND is Fully Renovated? A Unique 1920s Spanish Gem in Mar Vista with Historical Charm. One-of-a-kind 1920s Spanish home, radiating historical charm and character in the heart of Mar Vista. Restored to perfection, it features original ~12 foot + dome ceilings, hand-carved moldings, and hammered glass windows, preserving its unique essence while incorporating modern luxury. Located in a great school district. A blend of timeless elegance and practicality-- you dont have to touch this home for years and years. The kitchen showcases custom cabinetry, porcelain floors, and CAFE appliances in a striking white and bronze design, complemented by a refurbished original pendant light. Brand new sewer and plumbing. Bathrooms feature stunning Spanish tile accents, marble and porcelain flooring, and premium Delta fixtures made in the USA, with the master bath boasting intricate pebble flooring and rich Spanish details. Mother in law suite or private office away from the main house; a bonus room of all bonus rooms. With an En-suite bathroom opens to a newly landscaped backyard, creating a flexible space for guests, an office, or a creative studio. The outdoor area includes a pergola framed with original Mexican Saltillo tiles, perfect for relaxation or entertaining. This home is not just a treasure for families but also a fantastic opportunity for investors and developers looking to buy and hold or add value in a prime

West Los Angeles location. You can not hear the freeway from inside whatsoever. A short distance to the popular Mar Vista Farmers Market. Cream of the crop neighborhood.

Built in 1924
