N/A, Los Angeles,

New year--New Listing--Gorgeous new styling to show off the exquisite original features of this remarkable character home with high ceilings, massive art walls and huge picture windows allowing in tons of natural sunlight and framing spectacular views from the downtown skyline to the ocean. Located on a level celebrity cul-de-sac high in the hills, Glencairn Road is one of prime Los Feliz' best streets and best kept secrets. Situated in total privacy and completely hidden from the street, this circa 1936 estate-style home offers comfortable luxurious living with beautiful original architecture and character, plus stunning natural-colored antique newly-refinished hardwood floors. Picturesque courtyard and walkway lead to front entrance and center hall. Spacious formal dining room overlooks the front garden through picture bay window and leads to authentic period-style chefs kitchen with stainless appliances and breakfast area with breathtaking view. Huge family/media with original fireplace and coat of arms has its own private balcony overlooking the city lights. Oversized living room with fireplace offers copious art walls, spectacular views and balcony access. Downstairs are three bedrooms and three baths, including a stunning double primary suite with separate sitting room with fireplace, plus gorgeous remodeled concrete and marble bath with steam shower and giant movie star walk-in closet. Arches and halls lead to two additional character guest bedrooms that share a newly remodeled Jack and Jill bath, and there is also an additional original tiled hall bath, leading to the massive multi-level private yard consisting of several large flat pads plus a dining patio with pergola and room for a pool. All of the vintage hallmarks are here: including moldings, original hardwood floors, built-ins, high ceilings on both floors, and bright sun-drenched rooms plus new lighting. Attached garage provides direct access. Your own extraordinary private escape among nature and views with the whole city at your fingertips.

Built in 1936
