5 Bedroom, 6.00 Bathroom, 5,267 sqft
Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Los Angeles,

A contemporary architectural offering breathtaking canyon and city views, framing the horizon from nearly every room. Sitting on almost half an acre, every moment at 10917 Savona Road feels like a curated experience where privacy, nature, contemporary design, and natural light blend together in harmony. Tucked away on an exclusive cul-de-sac in Bel Air, the private gates open out to a spacious, manicured front yard that hints at the thoughtful composition and seamless flow inside. The kitchen captivates with sweeping views of the LA skyline through large windows and is equipped with top-of-the-line Wolf appliances. Adjacent, the dining room's floor-to-ceiling windows bathe the space in natural light, enhancing the panoramic city views. As you enter the living room, the home truly opens up. Expansive Fleetwood pocket doors blur the line between indoors and out, inviting the tranquility of the backyard into the heart of the home. Whether you're relaxing or entertaining, the space adjusts to your needs with remote-controlled blinds that offer privacy or a flow of light and custom built-in Sonos speakers throughout. A versatile nook beneath the staircase offers space for an office, reading corner, or even a hidden speakeasy, opening directly to the backyard. The primary suite spans the entire second floor, featuring floor-to-ceiling windows that frame expansive city and ocean views on one side and canyon views on the other. The open layout flows naturally, with a built-in fireplace providing a central focal point. The primary suite includes dual bathroom areas, each with its own distinct character. One features a grand entryway lined with mirrored closets leading to a soaking tub, a separate rainfall shower, and a vanity with views of the skyline. Outside, the backyard acts as the central extension of the home, with every ground-floor ensuite bedroom opening directly onto this inviting space. The pool and spa, framed by a well-manicured lawn and lush greenery, is a natural gathering point for family and friends. A shaded pergola offers a retreat from the sun, where you can relax and take in the rolling canyon views. The built-in barbecue and dining area ensure that your outdoor living is just as seamless as the indoor spaces ideal for quiet dinners or larger gatherings under the stars.
