N/A, Venice,

Step into a world where modern elegance meets effortless Venice living. This Mid-Century Modern-inspired home, designed by architect Bill Tsui and custom-built by Brian Tarr of BTC Builders in 2020, is on the market for the first time. The clean white lines that define the facade belie the warm, wood-accented interior flooded with natural light. Floor-to-ceiling glass walls and sliders dissolve the boundary between inside and out, creating an open yet intimate atmosphere. Set back on a quiet street, the elevated entry and dramatic frosted glass pivot door offer a grand yet inviting welcome. The open-concept lower level is well-defined and inviting. The media room - outfitted with generous custom bookcases, a large-screen TV, and Sonos surround flows effortlessly into both a private courtyard and the patio/pool area. A stunning kitchen can fit all the sous chefs, with milled cabinetry, an expansive porcelain-topped island and peninsula, and top-of-the-line Sub-Zero / Wolf appliances. A beautiful dining area meets the cozy living room, replete with a brick-faced fireplace and dry bar with a Sub-Zero wine cooler and glass-enclosed cabinets. Step outside to your private Mediterranean-inspired oasis featuring a swimming pool and spa (with automatic cover), the al fresco living room warmed by the custom copper coped and Heath tiled firepit, and an expansive outdoor dining room, all bordered by lush succulent beds. Back inside, the central steel-framed staircase is a showstopper - anchoring the home while drawing the focus upstairs. Here we find 4 of the 5 bedrooms (3 with en-suite baths). The primary suite, perfectly positioned on the east side to embrace the morning sun - boasts soaring ceilings, dual walk-in closets, and a spa-like bath. The built-in bookcases conceal a hidden TV, while a Sonos surround system completes this luxurious haven. A smart, sustainable, and efficient home - a 9.8kW solar system (battery ready) powers the property with dual EV chargers in the 2-car garage and wired for up to 7Gb of fiber Internet service. The automated Control-4 system seamlessly manages the home's lighting, motorized shades, security system/exterior cameras, HVAC, and Sonos throughout. A rare opportunity to own a one-of-a-kind Venice retreat.
