N/A, Los Angeles,

Welcome to this Spanish-style hideaway, where timeless charm meets modern sophistication. This lovingly renovated two-bedroom, two-bathroom main house with detached studio masterfully preserves its 1930's architectural character while seamlessly incorporating contemporary updates throughout. A thoughtfully designed stone walkway guides you through the landscaped front yard, decorated with lemon, orange, lime, and avocado trees. Inside, elegant tile flooring unifies the living spaces, while fresh white walls and dual-paned windows invite abundant natural light into the open, airy interior. The generously sized living room impresses with high ceilings, stunning wooden beams, and an ornate fireplace with original detailing, while a wall of custom built-ins with open shelving elevates the space for modern day living. The show-stopping kitchen is a chef's dream, featuring deep blue cabinetry, an oversized island with bar seating, open shelving, and stunning quartz countertops. High end touches such as under-cabinet lighting, a microwave drawer, and a water filtration system show that every detail has been carefully considered to enhance both style and function. The original detailing of this 1930's home can be seen in the intricate crown molding design of the adjacent dining room and charming archways throughout. The primary bedroom connects to an impeccably designed ensuite with a dual-sink vanity, rain shower, built-in cabinetry, and a smart toilet. The secondary bedroom features a walk-in closet and offers views of the backyard. Across the hall you'll find a bright and spacious bathroom with beautiful tiling, a separate bathtub and shower, and plenty of storage and counter space. A full size laundry room with a utility sink completes this interior space and provides additional access to the home's private backyard oasis. Ideal for relaxation or entertainment, the private backyard is made for year-round recreation. The fully heated pool and spa is surrounded by lush landscaping and features a stone wall with decorative waterfalls. You can relax under an umbrella on the Baja shelf or lounge poolside to soak up that California sun. In the evening, you'll appreciate the warm glow of the bistro lights, whether you're unwinding in the hot tub or enjoying a meal al fresco. A custom outdoor kitchen with built-in barbecue is centered between the outdoor living and dining areas. A wall of mature hedges and a gravel pathway create an intimate outdoor dining space. Next to the pool, you'll find a finished garage ideal for a home office, artist studio, or guest retreat. With French doors, a built-in desk, expansive counter space, and impressive open shelving, this fully renovated space offers flexibility to expand your living space beyond the house. Additional features of this home include central heating, A/C, fully paid off solar panels, recessed lighting, a fully fenced in yard with electric gate, and an EV charger. Located in the vibrant neighborhood of Vermont Knolls, this turn-key retreat offers easy access to venues such as SoFi Stadium and The Forum, and trendy restaurants like Jon & Vinny's and Hilltop Kitchen. Enjoy outdoor activities at nearby Saint Andrews Park or Jesse Owens Community Golf Course or spend an afternoon thrift shopping at Finders Keepers.
