8 Bedroom, 14.00 Bathroom, 20,000 sqft
Residential on 4 Acres

N/A, Los Angeles,

3.5 acres completely flat makes this one of the most important estates in Los Angeles. Mallorcan Villa designed by renowned architect Bob Ray Offenhauser and built by Peter McCoy Construction. Timeless and Elegant, seamless blend between interior and exterior spaces. The Villa is in pristine condition with exquisite detail, extensive use of imported stone and exceptional steel windows/doors by Architectural Iron Works. Soaring 20ft coffered ceilings in the living room. 2-story dining room and library are perfect backdrop for grand entertaining. Indoor-outdoor pavilion/bar overlooks the infinity edge pool and pool cabana. Primary suite is a world apart with views over vast lawns, reminiscent of Montecito. Double baths with individual pocket gardens. Additionally, there is a large guest suite, 4 generous family bedrooms each with homework areas, a junior guest room and staff bedroom. Totaling 8 bedrooms. Additional features of the estate include: gourmet kitchen and catering kitchen, large gym, 1,200 bottle wine cellar, game room, oversized 4-car garage, and a service building with separate entrance. Gardens designed by Todd Bennitt. The grounds feature: rolling meadows, olive allee, formal rose gardens, courtyards, water features, tennis court and sports court. All in complete privacy. A work of art to be cherished and celebrated. Shown only to prequalified buyers.

Built in 2005
