N/A, Los Angeles,

Located in the Brentwood Hills, this multilevel 5-bedroom, 3-bathroom Mid-Century Modern home was designed by renowned LA architect Bill Mack. It features soaring ceilings, floor-to-ceiling glass, and an open layout that maximizes light and space. The thoughtful floor plan includes a spacious family room off the kitchen, an office, a formal entry, and both front and rear staircases for enhanced flexibility. Warm natural elements (such as rich wood detailing) add to its inviting character; while expansive windows and lofted spaces create an effortless indoor-outdoor flow, perfect for both everyday living and entertaining. Four bedrooms are located upstairs, with a fifth bedroom (or den) downstairs offering versatility for guests or multi-generational living. The primary suite serves as a private retreat with generous proportions, ample closet space, and abundant natural light. Perched on the upper portion of Greencraig, this architecturally significant home presents an opportunity to own an updated home that still preserves its Mid-Century charm.
