Sunrise Park, Palm Springs,

This quintessential mid-century home embodies the best of Palm Springs living in the centrally located Sunrise Park neighborhood. Built by the iconic Alexander Construction Company and set on fee land (you own it), the home enjoys a desirable west-facing orientation with striking Mt. San Jacinto views from both the front and back of the property. Vibrant desert landscaping with notable cactus specimens, iconic Palm Springs curb appeal, and a cheerfully painted front door create a warm welcome. Inside, a wall of sliding glass doors seamlessly connects indoor and outdoor living. The original stone gas fireplace anchors the living area with timeless character, echoing the stone accents on the home's front facade. The spacious primary suite currently configured as two bedrooms and two bathrooms includes a tranquil sitting area with direct access to the patio, backyard, and pool. Two front-facing guest rooms enjoy their own private patio with a seating area and fire feature as an inviting spot to take in the golden glow of a desert sunset. The backyard has been thoughtfully designed for both relaxation and entertaining, with striking desert plantings that bring texture, color, and a sense of artistry. A sparkling pool and spa with a waterslide anchor the space, complemented by a covered patio and a charming outbuilding repurposed as a festive cabana bar. Whether you're seeking a full-time residence or a stylish desert retreat, this character-rich mid-century gem offers effortless indoor-outdoor living in the heart of Palm Springs!

Built in 1958
