Modern Tudor with Approved Expansion in Franklin Hills. This 1926 Tudor Revival in Franklin Hills isn't just a home it's an opportunity. Combining vintage charm with pre-approved permits for a second story and a legal ADU, 2353 Ronda Vista Drive is perfect for buyers looking to invest, expand, or create a multi-functional living space in one of L.A.'s most desirable neighborhoods. Tucked on a quiet hillside street, this home is full of character: original hardwood floors, soaring ceilings, and sun-drenched rooms that make it feel both cozy and grand. The living and dining spaces set the tone for effortless entertaining, while a bright kitchen with a charming breakfast nook captures stunning hillside views ideal for slow mornings or creative inspiration. Two spacious bedrooms and a full bath keep the home's classic feel intact, while a bonus room offers flexible space for a home office, studio, or guest area. A two-car garage adds even more options - think gym, workshop, or additional living space. But what really makes this home stand out? The future-forward potential. With approved plans for a second story and ADU, this property is a turnkey expansion opportunity skip the red tape and start designing your dream home. Located just minutes from Los Feliz, Silver Lake, and Atwater Village, you'll be steps from some of L.A.'s best coffee shops, brunch spots, and nightlife. Whether you're drawn to its historic charm or its limitless potential, this Franklin Hills gem won't be on the market for long.
