Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Los Angeles,

This stunning example of Mid-Century Post and Beam architecture was designed by Donald Perry Polsky, a colleague of Richard Neutra in the late 50's, and carefully remodeled in 2008. Located on a quiet cul-de-sac in Laurel Hills, the glass walls of this 3,255 sqft house maximizes natural light and indoor-outdoor flow. One section of the home features a secluded master suite, two bedrooms + bath, while the other section contains a large bedroom that can be used as an office/studio with its own bathroom and separate entrance. The private garden has canyon views and offers a saltwater pool, a built in grill and fire pit. This spectacular home features an indoor fountain. An ultimate private haven in the Wonderland school district.

Built in 1960
