A Visionary Mid-Century Masterpiece in Bel Air
Nestled in a serene enclave off the iconic Bel Air Road, this architectural gem redefines both contemporary refinement and mid-century modern sophistication. Designed by a disciple of Richard Neutra, every corner of this 3-bedroom, 2-bath home embodies a deep respect for harmony between nature and design. Step through the tranquil courtyard entry and arrive in a space that instantly soothes the soul. Walls of glass invite light to dance through the living and dining rooms, while framing breathtaking views of the canyon, surrounding hills, and lush greenery. The expansive lot and private setting offer a seamless blend of indoor comfort and outdoor serenity, a true sanctuary amid the pulse of Los Angeles. Located just a short drive from the vibrant energy of West LA and Beverly Hills, the home remains quietly cradled by the natural beauty of the Santa Monica Mountains. It is more than a home, it's a retreat where history, elegance, and nature converge. This rare opportunity to own a piece of architectural legacy awaits.
