Residential on 0 Acres

Canyon South 1, Palm Springs,

Welcome to the 70's when spaces sprawled. Located on approximately 9 acres in South Palm Springs, shared with about sixty other units, the concrete walks amble through the greenbelts dotted with fruit trees surrounding three community pools and spa areas. As you approach the condo, you enter a large walled partially covered patio area great to large tables and sitting areas for guest to relax. Upon entering the condo, an entryway sweeps you into the vaulted ceiling living room with fireplace. The living room is large enough to host two sitting areas and room for even a dining area. Large mirrors encircling the fireplace appear to double the room size. There is even a hidden bar off the living area when the mood hits. Expansive glass doors open off the living room onto the covered rear patio which can also be accessed from the primary bedroom. The kitchen offers walls of cabinets with plenty of storage for the gourmet cook in all of us. A walk-in pantry is just across the entry way from the kitchen. Currently the third bedroom is set up as a media room with access to that hidden bar and front patio. The primary bedroom currently holds a king size bed and there is plenty of room for a sitting area. A mirrored wall hides a large closet area. Another walk-in closet is off the dressing room of the primary bath area. The primary bath formally had a double sink set up but one was removed for office space, a quick fix to restore. The corner guest bedroom which also has access to the front patio area
