N/A, Montecito,

Nestled in one of Montecito's most beloved neighborhoods, the roots of this newly expanded home date back to the original 1895 Stanford White estate. What started as a private bowling alley+billiards hall is now a beautiful estate offering a modern adventure in traditional living. A large wrap around porch greets guests with grace and hospitality. Inside the flexible floor plan offers wonderful spaces for all life's stages. A large chef's kitchen opens to the family room which showcases historical details including an original fireplace. Two bedrooms on the main floor and three ensuite bedrooms upstairs offer beautiful accommodations. Outside ancient oak trees mingle with raised garden beds, bocce, a pool, and a gorgeous outdoor dining room. The detached studio is ideal for work or play.
