Don Saxon Palmer A.I.A. (1966) Set at the end of a quiet, tree-lined cul-de-sac in the coveted hills of Encino, 17155 Clemons Drive is one of the original masterfully crafted mid-century modern residences by renowned builder Harlan Lee, benefiting from the extra-deep, double-sized 16,000+ lots. A study in light and proportion, the home opens to a sun-drenched, open-concept interior where soaring ceilings and a sculptural tiled fireplace anchor the living space with understated sophistication. The chef's kitchen appointed with Thermador appliances, a Sub-Zero refrigerator, and honed Quartzite stone countertops flows effortlessly into the inviting family room, creating a seamless environment for entertaining and everyday living. A floating staircase leads to the tranquil primary suite, featuring a custom walk-in closet and an elegantly updated bath. Moments from the award-winning Lanai Road Elementary and a network of scenic hiking and biking trails, this thoughtfully designed home offers effortless access to both the serenity of the hills and the cultural energy of Ventura Boulevard.
