Gated and masterfully hedged, the residence is completely hidden from street view, nestled among lush, tropical landscaping that evokes the essence of an exclusive island retreat, yet remains just minutes from Griffith Park, the Franklin Strip, and Los Feliz Village. A favorite among well-known creatives and entertainers, this home has quietly played host to a roster of celebrated names, offering the kind of seclusion and calm rarely found in Los Angeles. As a further testament to its serene energy, the home was personally blessed by monks, infusing the space with a sense of peace and harmony.
