N/A, Los Angeles,

On a quiet street in Mt. Washington, this Pueblo Revival haven evokes the earthy warmth of perennially sunny Santa Fe. A tiled pathway leads you into airy, free-flowing living space with wood floors and postcard-worthy vistas stretching all the way to DTLA. Spread out, settle by the Kiva fireplace with a book, or step out to the patio for coffee and skyline views. The open kitchen keeps things easy with ample storage, sage tile counters, and effortless flow to dining. Head downstairs to find three airy bedrooms, each with a lovely view and great closet space, plus a useful flex space ready for a gym or creative studio. The front yard is gated for privacy, a dreamy setting for daytime hangs and starlit dinner parties. Amenities include Central AC and attached garage. Perched in the treetops, you're just minutes from Cleland Park and all the coffee, dining, and boutique finds along nearby York and Figueroa.
