N/A, Culver City,

Ultra charming 1920's Spanish located in Culver City's Arts District. Just a few blocks from the Metro, bike path, art galleries, restaurants, The Platform, Apple and Amazon offices. Tastefully remodeled and upgraded without having lost the classic 1920's charm and character. Enclosed front patio with drought resistant landscape fronting the house. Living room has fireplace and lots of light. Step up to dining area with beautiful hardwood flooring that extends throughout the house. Remodeled kitchen is open to the dining room and has eating counter as well as custom countertops and backsplash. All built-in stainless-steel appliances including a skylight, garden window and recessed lighting. Highly functional with tons of cabinet and storage space. Third bedroom doubles as office or den with French doors that open to a large yard, deck and detached guest unit. Spectacular guest unit must be seen to appreciate. Mini split AC, pitched wood beam ceiling and lots of light. Kitchenette with fridge and counter/cabinet space. Bath has glass enclosed walk-in shower and the unit opens to private patio as well as the back yard.

Built in 1929
