Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Los Angeles,

On a tree-lined street in Silver Lake, this 1923 Craftsman bungalow offers a rare blend of historic charm and modern comfort set discreetly above the hustle and bustle of Sunset. Steps lead past an intimate garden setting and up into the home through a light-filled porch. Enter the living area that celebrates all there is to love about Craftsman details, with expansive windows and a glass door, built-ins and crown moulding offering the warmth you expected. Behind the freshly painted walls and refinished hardwood floors, whispered tales of the past lead you through the thoughtful layout. The bright and airy kitchen offers vintage charm with ample storage, including a pass-through window for ease as you entertain in the romantic dining room. Two bedrooms, each offering their own light-filled retreat, and a roomy full bathroom make the home perfect for a growing family or a peaceful nest for two. The expertly terraced backyard boasts a patio area ideal for summer grilling. As you ascend you'll find a soulful shed providing a haven for creative work or inspired relaxation. Lastly, take the stairs to the upper deck and find a setting for entertaining as you take in the rows of palm trees and soaring views. Lush and mature landscaping, including 3 majestic redwood trees, provides a sense of privacy as you look out over the city. This endlessly inviting bungalow with light breezes and a detached garage is located near some of the best Silver Lake offerings, with easy access to the 2 and 101 fwys for a quick start on your commute. A truly memorable property awaits.
