Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Los Angeles,

Featured in Dwell Magazine, this romantic turnkey Spanish home by HabHouse blends lovely, charming character details with a playful modern flair in a fantastic location. Sited on a street-to-street lot with beautiful, direct views of the cascading falls of the Rowena reservoir from the kitchen, dining room and backyard, this property is truly a rare opportunity. Incredible curb appeal enhanced by ornate, colorful tilework, mature landscaping and custom woodwork. With rows of palm trees set in the backdrop, the entry leads to a tranquil front courtyard perfect for enjoying morning coffee or visiting with guests. The striking custom front door with speakeasy grill opens to the splendor of 1930s character details such as archways, built-in bookshelves, a high coved ceiling, a grand picture window, hearth design and refinished tongue-and-groove hardwood floors. The oversized living room is a dream for hosting and entertaining as it flows into the dining room and backyard taking full advantage of the views of the water. The George Nelson and PH5 light fixtures and custom cabinetry of the kitchen add a modern touch that compliments the original Spanish detail. The private space above includes two ensuite bedrooms, each with its own custom designed bathroom from the tile to the Venetian plaster work. The large living space below adds a versatility to the floor plan allowing for one to have a bonus den, home office, art or music studio, bedroom, etc. The spacious enclosed backyard with its lawn, lemon, lime & pomegranate trees creates an open green space separating the main house from the ADU. Whether for guests to stay or for one's own detached flex space, the complete converted garage offers a kitchen with counters, new appliances and plenty of storage as well a large open space and a full bathroom. Owner has permitted the lower space by doing extensive foundation work. Within the boundaries of the Ivanhoe School District, this special home is minutes from all that Los Feliz and Silver Lake have to offer.

Built in 1931
