Sagewood, Palm Springs,

Experience the essence of desert living in this beautifully reimagined home in Sagewood. Set on one of the community's largest patios, you'll enjoy sweeping mountain views and mature landscaping that provide rare privacy and serenity. Designed by Donald Wexler and spanning 18 acres of low-density living, Sagewood features just 108 homesites surrounded by lush greenbelts; a true rarity in today's developments. Inside, thoughtful upgrades elevate the home's style and function, including a panel-ready refrigerator, induction cooktop, and custom draperies typically found in much higher-priced properties. The reconfigured, expanded kitchen maximizes space and efficiency, while updated windows bathe the interiors in natural light. Large-format porcelain tile and designer-selected interior hues create a calm, cohesive atmosphere throughout. Complete with a single-car garage, deeded storage, and dramatic mountain views, this residence offers a refined retreat that captures the very best of Palm Springs luxury living.

Built in 1972
