Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Los Angeles,

Rustic 1920s cabin in Baird Park, a serene and hidden enclave tucked away in the El Sereno hills. Located behind a private gate and surrounded by 3 acres of lush trails, mature foliage, and panoramic views, this historic cabin is one of the Eastside's best-kept secrets. This serene residence blends vintage character with thoughtful modern touches.

Beamed ceilings and hardwood floors throughout create warmth and timeless appeal, while expansive glass sliders connect the indoor spaces to a large entertaining deck perched above the trees. The kitchen pairs calming blue-hued cabinetry with updated appliances, leading to a dining area that opens seamlessly to the outdoors. The primary suite features a spacious closet and ensuite bath. One of the home's most captivating design moments is the onsen-style soaking tub nestled in a hallway alcove - a peaceful sanctuary framed by oversized windows and forest views. A second bedroom and bathroom complete the main layout, and a detached flex 170 sq ft bonus studio offers endless potential for a creative workspace, guest area, or storage. Located close to local hot spots including Debs Park, The Greyhound Bar, Zizou, Antigua Bread, Ascot Hills Park, Don Tonos, and more. Homes here rarely change hands, making this a rare chance to claim a piece of one of L.A.'s most unique and secluded communities.

Built in 1920
