3 Bedroom, 2.00 Bathroom, 1,446 sqft
Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Los Angeles,

Built in 1953 and set on a nice lot in a quaint pocket of West LA, this inviting home has been recently refreshed and thoughtfully updated with a new HVAC system (including A/C), on-demand hot water heater, and upgraded electrical panel. The flexible open floor plan is filled with natural light, and both the interior and exterior have been freshly primed offering a clean slate for your vision. Enjoy a large, welcoming front yard and a backyard with mature trees and ample space to relax or entertain. A detached two-car garage adds additional versatility. Located just west of the 405 and south of Washington Boulevard, this part of Culver City offers a unique blend of urban access and neighborhood charm. The area features a mix of original mid-century homes, modern architecture, and a growing number of local shops and businesses, along with convenient access to parks, schools, and major transit routes.
