N/A, Malibu,

On Point Dume, steps away from the beach, a residence envisioned by world-renowned architect Michael Palladino was created. This breathtaking home is a work of art designed with a deep love of the beach, pristine coves, local foothills, generational trees, and the spirit of the land. The property exudes understated elegance and a mesmerizing indoor-outdoor flow. Seamlessly, it blends in with the grounds designed by landscape architect Pamela Burton. Entering the home, one is immediately drawn to the wall-to-wall pocket slider in the great room, the elegant quarter-sawn white oak floors, and the high ceilings. The abundant use of natural light allows for bright, open spaces throughout. A gourmet kitchen completed by Bulthaup with Gaggenau and Miele appliances, as well as radiant heated floors both inside and outside the home. Entire water purification system, room for pool, guest house, and additions. Includes coveted beach key to Little Dume beach, within walking distance to shops, market, and restaurants.
